Too Busy to Bake?

Here's the gift that says you would have...
but The Lower Eastside Girls Club beat you to it!
(And they're a really neat cause!)

Here's how it works:

Twenty-five fabulous home bakers have entered the First Annual Girls Club Holiday Bake-Off. A panel of celebrity chefs (and you!) will judge their cherished family recipes and creative confections. Judges include Gina DePalma (Babbo), Myriam Eberhardt (DBGB), Nichelle Stephens (Co-Editor of Cupcakes Take The Cake) and Sue Torres (Suenos).

These sweet creations will be available for purchase. Your $15 donation includes a cookie tin to be filled by you (cookies will be priced at 50 cents and up) and a drink ticket. All proceeds will support entrepreneurial training programs at the Girls Club for local youth.
